

C. S. Lewis & The Challenge of the 21st Century

January 25-26, 2008,
Pres House
731 State St., Madison, WI

Friday evening, January 25, 2008:

- 7 p.m., Pres House Chapel: Tom Key, "Screwtape in Person "
8:45 p.m. Reception, Pridham Lounge

Saturday, January 26, 2008:

- 8 a.m. Pridham Lounge. Gilbert Meilaender, Valparaiso University,
"Preserving our Humanity: C. S. Lewis and "The Abolition of Man"
- 9 a.m. Coffee Break
- 9:15 a.m. David Downing, Elizabeth College,
"The Ransom Trilogy and the Oldest Temptation: 'Ye Shall Be As Gods'"
- 10:30 a.m. Mark Linville, Atlanta Christian College,
"C. S. Lewis and the Revival of Naturalism"
- 11:30 a.m. Lunch, on State Street
- 1 p.m. Crystal Downing, Messiah College,
"Male and Female God Created Them: Dorothy L. Sayers's Challenge to C. S. Lewis"
- 2 p.m. Coffee Break
- 2:30-4 p.m. Discussion between the presenters on the issues raised in the conference, with questions by the audience
- 5 p.m. Supper on State Street
- 7 p.m. Pres House Chapel: Tom Key in "C. S. Lewis on Stage"
- 8:45 p.m. Reception, Pridham Lounge

Sponsored by New College Madison, the Bradshaw-Knight Foundation, the Presbyterian Student Center, UW-Madison, and the InterVarsity Christian Fellowship Faculty and Graduate Ministry